

PRESS RELEASE: 2021 OGSA / BRETTYOUNG TURFGRASS EDUCATION AWARD WINNERS ANNOUNCED!

July 14, 2021 – The OGSA and BrettYoung would like to congratulate Erik Andrejicka, and William Forsyth on winning the 2021 Turfgrass Education Awards! Erik studied turfgrass management at the University of Guelph, class of 2021. William, an Ontario resident and summer intern, is currently in his third year at Olds College studying turfgrass management. Each aspiring golf course superintendent will receive a cash award of $1,500 to help aid in their professional development.

“Supporting education has always been important to BrettYoung,” says BrettYoung Ontario Sales Manager Andrew Hardy. “Whether it was through our support of the Future Leaders sponsorship at the OGCMC or this exciting new partnership with the OGSA, we believe in the importance of developing future leaders for the Turfgrass Industry and are proud to support the successful candidates.”

Owen Russell, OGSA secretary-treasurer and scholarship committee member, shares, “The OGSA is committed to recognizing students pursuing turfgrass management in the golf industry, and supporting their scholastic achievements. Each year, we award over $10,000 in scholarships to help support our members and this year we are excited to partner with BrettYoung for this particular award. We are proud of both recipients and their accomplishments.”

The Turfgrass Education Award is for students pursuing a career in turfgrass management and enrolled in a fulltime post-secondary program. This award is judged on essay submissions as well as academic achievement. For more information about the OGSA scholarship and awards program, visit ogsa.ca.
