

Name of Company: Sutton Creek Golf Club

Company Description:

Sutton Creek is located just minutes south of Windsor in Essex County, nestled in the county plains, surrounded by natural forest and wildlife. There could be no better place than Sutton Creek to play the game you love... especially when the game is being played on a 6700 yard, 140 acre magnificently manicured golf facility.

The course has been under new ownership since 2011, and is in excellent condition, has a challenging playability and suited for players of all ability. In the history of Sutton Creek, we have played host to the CN Future Links Championship in 2010, Ontario Men's Amateur Championships in 2007 and 2001 and Ontario Senior Men's Amateur Championship in 2005. We hope to continue to host high profile events into the future.
